Scenes from Hurricane Dennis, During and After

State park road: Note speed limit signs barely sticking out above the sand that was left on the roadbed.

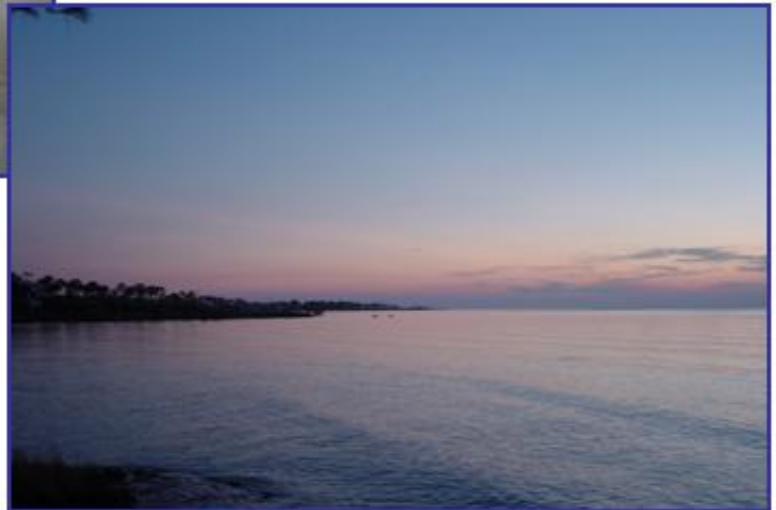

Looking down West Sawyer Street towards the bay

Road erosion in the State Park: No wonder they are starting over with the park!

Another beautiful sunset on our part of the bay at North Sawyer Street, post-Dennis

Neighborhood Tidbit

Thought you might like to know that we have a Tupperware dealer in our neighborhood, Tanya Shores, who owns a home on West Sawyer with her husband David. Tanya can be reached at ttshores@bellsouth.net and her website is <http://my2.tupperware.com/tup-html/T/tuppertata-welcome.html>.
